

The Learning Environment

J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is committed to providing a positive learning environment in which all faculty, staff, and students can learn together in a setting that encourages the free exchange of ideas and information. To accomplish this goal, the members of the college have established the following expectations for learning.

Arrival/Departure – Respect schedules, arrive/depart on time, and notify others when changes are necessary.

Courtesy - Assist others, acknowledge the presence of others, and be considerate of others while they work, study or speak.

Distractions – Turn off cell phones and other electronic devices in class, labs, libraries, and meetings.

Exit – Keep your college areas clean, orderly, and ready for use by others.

Honesty/Accountability – Take credit only for work that is yours. Make yourself accountable for the information you release.

Participation – Help everyone feel welcome to participate and freely exchange ideas without interruption.

Preparation – Come prepared and focus solely on the business at hand.

Privacy – Keep confidential discussions in private spaces.

Professionalism – Model and develop behavior that will foster success in the workplace.

Respect – Respect all backgrounds, cultures, and contributions.

Responsibility – Acknowledge errors and express willingness to correct them.
